The participant should notify the Chair of his/her intention to submit such drafts by providing him/her with the contents of the draft in writing, at the latest by the time the voting on the issue to which the proposed draft resolution relates is ordered.

V.5. Method of exercising voting rights by proxy and notifying the Company by means of electronic communication of the appointment of a proxy, as well as the use of forms when voting by proxy

According to Art. 412-412² of the Commercial Companies Code, a shareholder may participate in the General Meeting and exercise voting rights in person or by proxy. The proxy exercises all the rights of a shareholder at the General Meeting, unless otherwise stated in the power of attorney. He or she may also grant a further power of attorney, if it follows from the wording of the power of attorney. A proxy may represent more than one shareholder and vote differently on each shareholder's shares. A shareholder with shares recorded in more than one securities account may appoint separate proxies to exercise rights from shares recorded in each account. A special case is when the proxy at the General Meeting is a member of the Management Board, a member of the Supervisory Board, an employee of the Company or a member of the bodies or an employee of a subsidiary of the Company. Then the following rules apply:

1. A power of attorney may authorize representation at only one General Meeting.
2. The proxy is obliged to disclose to the shareholder the circumstances indicating the existence or possibility of a conflict of interest.
3. The granting of a further power of attorney is excluded.
4. The proxy shall vote in accordance with the instructions given by the shareholder.

A power of attorney to attend the Company's General Meeting and exercise voting rights must be granted in writing or in electronic form. If the power of attorney is granted electronically, the principal or attorney should notify the Company. The notice of appointment of a proxy should be submitted to the Company in time to enable the Company to identify the principal and his/her proxy, but no later than the day before the day on which the General Meeting is convened.

The notice may be in writing or in electronic form. The notice in writing should be sent to the address of the Company's Management Office (14 Olchowa Street, 35-322 Rzeszów). The Management Board notes that the aforementioned deadline for submitting a notice to the Company shall be deemed to have been met if the notice is effectively delivered to the Company within this period. Therefore, the mere fact of sending a notice within this timeframe is not sufficient. A notice in electronic form may be sent to the Company via e-mail to the following address: wz@asseco.pl.

The notice of appointment of a proxy should include:

1. the name and surname or name (company) of the principal and the names of the persons authorized to grant a power of attorney on his/her behalf,
2. the type and identification number of the identity document, as well as the principal's PESEL number (in the case of natural persons) or KRS number (in the case of entities entered in the National Court Register - Register of Entrepreneurs),
3. the name and surname of the proxy, as well as the PESEL number or series and number of the proxy's identity card,
4. the residence (seat) of the principal and proxy,
5. the telephone number or e-mail address that allows regular contact with the principal,

6. the date of the power of attorney,
7. the indication of the General Meeting in connection with which the power of attorney is granted,
8. the scope of the power of attorney, including, in particular, any limitations on the power of attorney and an indication of whether the proxy may also appoint further proxies,
9. indication whether the power of attorney is revocable.

The notice should be submitted to the Company in time to enable it to identify the principal and his/her proxy, but no later than the day before the day on which the General Meeting is convened.

In the case of expressing the will to participate in the General Meeting by means of remote electronic communication, the application should be submitted in the form and by the date specified in Section V.6.

If the notice has been given in accordance with the above requirements, the Company shall immediately confirm to the principal that the notice has been given.

If the notice does not comply with the above requirements, the Company shall immediately inform the principal indicating the deficiencies of the notice.

The lack of notice or a notice made in violation of the above requirements shall be taken into account when assessing the existence of a legitimate authorization of the proxy to represent the principal at the General Meeting. In particular, it may be grounds for inadmissibility or exclusion of a person from participation in the General Meeting. Each participant, including a proxy, is required to sign in on the attendance list immediately upon arrival at the General Meeting. The participant is required to submit a document that proves his/her identity beyond any doubt before signing in the attendance list. Representatives (proxies), before being entered on the attendance list, are further required to submit for the record documents from which it will be clear beyond any doubt that they are legally authorized to represent the principal at the General Meeting. In addition, a proxy who has been granted a power of attorney in electronic form is required to submit this power of attorney in hard copy form for the record or send it to the Company via e-mail to wz@asseco.pl before being entered in the attendance list.

The company has made available on its website (<https://inwestor.asseco.com/o-asseco/lad-korporacyjny>, EGM section) forms that can be used by shareholders to vote by proxy.

However, shareholders are not required to use these forms.

The above rules shall also apply mutatis mutandis to further powers of attorney and to the revocation of a power of attorney.
